Words from our President- Dan Jones

Now to Him Who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine according to His power that is at work within us...(Ephesians 3:20)

Does the Christian life sometimes seem difficult to you? Does it sometimes seem really hard to witness to others, pray for others, or even pray for yourself? How about ministry; do you have a hard time approaching someone who appears depressed or down to ask if you can help or pray for them? Most people will confess that they struggle at least sometimes, many struggle a lot, even though they are in tune enough with the Holy Spirit to see people with needs around them. When we walk away from those situations without doing anything, we can experience guilt and even condemnation. I believe there is one thing that can set us free from the guilt, and that is to realize we are not expected to do miraculous things with our own power. According to Ephesians 3:20, we are to live according to His power "that is at work within us". The Holy Spirit doesn't show us a need just to see if we have the guts to address it. He shows us a need to give us an opportunity to allow Him to work in us to address it. All we really have to do is follow. I know it sounds easier than it seems, but I think what I need is more practice, more opportunities to allow Him to work within me. Whether it's at the CMRA races, a motorcycle rally, or anywhere else, Jesus wants to be the power within us to address the needs of those around us.

Hopefully we will soon be getting back to a more normal life and schedule. As our country, state, and local areas reopen, let's give those we meet all they need to know we are His disciples by showing our love for one another and ministering in His power. Wherever we are riding and whatever we are doing, we can do it all for the glory of Jesus. We are CMA, and that's how we roll.

Words from our Chaplin – Eric Smith

It is hard to believe that it has been almost 10 weeks since this quarantine stuff has started. I never dreamed that I would see anything like this in my lifetime. But as I am home each day, it seems like I am busier now than before all this started. However, in my business, I often don't take time for the one who matters the most. I get up, have my coffee, and start my day. And maybe, I will find time to put God in somewhere. See, I get busy with the small stuff and I forget the "big" stuff – the important stuff. In reality, if I put the big stuff first, then all the little stuff will fit in also. And if some of the little stuff doesn't fit in, oh well. At least the big stuff is taken care of. How many of you are like me. You cram all the small stuff you can into a day, and forget about the big stuff, the stuff that really matters? Over the next month, as things start to get back to normal, I challenge each of you (and especially myself), to make sure to take care of the big stuff first each day. Take care of the important stuff and let the other stuff fit in where it can. Love ya'll - Eric

A heartfelt thank you

— 2 CHRONICLES 7:14 (NKJV) —

IF MY PEOPLE WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME WILL HUMBLE THEMSELVES, AND PRAY AND SEEK MY FACE, AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS, THEN I WILL HEAR FROM HEAVEN, AND FORGIVE THEIR SIN AND HEAL THEIR LAND.
